

The SKETCHBOOK HABIT

WITH AMANDA MCLEAN

An exciting 2 Day workshop introducing the wonderful possibilities of sketchbooking. Sketching is the basic foundation for all artistic pursuits and a good habit to get into. Whether you want to sketch your travels, start daily sketching or just improve your drawing skills, this workshop is a great way to begin. It will help fire up your creativity and inspire you. We will touch on a variety of mediums and techniques to bring your sketchbook to life. This class will start with basic exercises and strategies from learning basic drawing techniques to tips on working quickly when time is limited and some 'how to's'. We will cover the basics of sketching using Pen and Ink, Shades of Grey and Line and Wash, and work on a variety of subjects from natural history, photographs and Plein air subjects.

ASOC member $290 / 2 days

Non member $340 / 2 days

Amanda McLean is best known as an internationally renowned Pastel Artist who has been painting with the medium for over 30 years. What is less well known is Amanda has always sketched, makes her own sketchbooks and uses them to record her life and travels. She regularly conducts sessions on making and on different sketchbook techniques. Amanda was featured on 'Colour In Your Life', an international art documentary series now available on YouTube.

More information about her teaching programme and artwork can be seen on her Instagram @amandamcleanfineart, Facebook page: Amanda McLean Fine Art and her website: www.amandamclean.net

Please visit the Artists Society of Canberra website: www.asoc.net.au to register for Amanda's workshop

(limit of 12 participants)