This course is designed for students who have completed Watercolour Fundamentals course or with equivalent experience.

The course will cover more advanced topics and each day we will complete a new painting from start to finish. As a group we will go through the process of design and composition. A demonstration will be followed with explanations on key elements. The students will be encouraged to complete a painting based on the demonstration but applying their own interpretations.

During the course we will cover vast variety of different subjects to give the students a wider understanding of the medium and techniques. This class will be led by master watercolourist Chan Dissanayake, who is highly knowledgeable teacher in the field of watercolour. You can visit Chans Website at <http://www.chandissan.com>

Please visit the Artists Society of Canberra website: www.asoc.net.au to register for Chan's workshop
